MISSION
 The Oregon Faith Roundtable Against Hunger seeks to explore the complexities of hunger by engaging diverse religious communities throughout the state in direct service and in developing solutions to the root causes of hunger through education and public policy.

STRATEGIES

- We convene conversations to learn from each other and to probe the questions we share.
- We host consultations to connect with our neighbors who are hungry and to broaden our understanding of the root causes of hunger.
- As members of religious communities, we are called to encourage commitments from congregations, organizations and individuals to advocate for and work toward solutions to the root causes of hunger.
